The list of authors

- Alphabetically ordered;
- ordered by “degrees of contribution”;
- student first, advisor second;
- etc.

Key: the message should be more important than [the order of] the messenger[s].

From co-author to single author

Why don't you write a single-authored paper?

- It would show the world that your PhD advisor is not just a researcher, he is also a successful mentor.
- Plus – could you do it at all?
(with your advisor's blessing of course)
Or are you only working on your PhD topic?
